Huckleberry Flint Benefit Concert Aug. 9th in Support of the Northcoast Regional Land Trust:
*Celebrate 25 years of NRLT's Wild and Working Land Conservation

Eureka, CA – The Northcoast Regional Land Trust (NRLT) is hosting its seventh annual Summer Celebration benefit concert on Saturday, August 9th at Freshwater Farms Reserve (5851 Myrtle Ave), This family-friendly event features popular local band Huckleberry Flint with opening performance by the Oyster Baes, as well as facepainting, a Cake Walk, and kid play area.

This year NRLT is celebrating 25 years of wild and working land conservation in Northwestern California! Since 2000, NRLT has permanently protected more than 65,000 acres of wild and working lands in the region. And, with the next phase of Wood Creek restoration slated to break ground in August, now is a great time to celebrate and raise funds for continued land protection, restoration, and education in our region.

Tickets are on sale now at givebutter.com/HuckFlint2025: $30 for adults, kids under 10 are free but must be registered. $40 at the door. Doors open at 4pm, music starts at 5pm. This is an outdoor concert with lawn seating (bring blankets or low chairs).

Food and drink will be available for purchase from the Humboldt County Cattlewomen, Los Giles, Dick Taylor Craft Chocolate, Fieldbrook Winery, and Paskenta Mad River Brewing. Please bike or carpool! Parking is limited at Freshwater Farms Reserve and a neighboring pasture (5853 Myrtle Ave). No pets, please.

This event is sponsored by Pacific Earthscape, Humboldt Mendocino Redwood Company, North Fork Lumber Company, PG&E, A.M. Baird Engineering, American AgCredit, Harbers Insurance, North Coast Co-op, Ramone's Bakery & Café, Alyson Hunter & Bill Richards, and supporters like you!
